

Into The Oblivion

VERS

Breaking the horizon line
Coast of my childhood
Back now as an older man
Always in my mind

BRIDGE

Far from home, we
Slept under unknown stars
Other gods ruled
Always thought of you

VERS

I will never go away
again so far from home
I am marked by time and axe
Edge in me is worn

BRIDGE

Far from home, I
See the years gone by Countless days, I
Lost the track of time

REF. x2

One, two, three, four
I have killed them all

Five, six, seven, eight
How long have I been gone

VERS

Somewhere in my inner thoughts
I can still recall
Mind is slowly blackens down
Soon I do not know

BRIDGE

Something deep inside my head is gone
Will I know the Coast of my childhood

STICK

I spread through your mind
Enter oblivion
Into the final stage
The veil of confusion

REF. x2

One, two, three, four
I have killed them all

Five, six, seven, eight
How long have I been gone
