

Late to Helheim

We are the storms that will shake the heavens
We are the thunder that crack the skies tonight

We are the hammer that bring down giants
And there will never be another way, no way!

*We're alive another day
Raise you glass and drink away
Let her wait, the misty gray
Late to Helheim*

I'm a king in a Viking legend
I am a jarl on a longboat long at sea
We are the tribe, we will fight forever
We are the blood, we are the eternity

*We're alive another day
Raise you glass and drink away
Let her wait, the misty gray
Late to Helheim*

*(Sista)
Live to fight another day
'Till the world will burn away
No more to do or say
Not to Helheim*
