

Lindisfarne

Lindisfarne make offer to the one
Lindisfarne no other days will come

Take all you can
Red Thor raid this lands

Run for your life
Run white Christ

From overseas
Feed on your fears
No one believed
We could achieve

Lindisfarne what could you ever done
Lindisfarne there be no other one

Slay what you can
Red Thor raid this lands

Run for your life
Run white Christ

The ships of north men came
On that fateful day
Blood of the priests of god
All that they could slay

In this year of fear
And forebodings
Dragons seen in sky
Among the storms

Then they came over seas
The plunderers
Trampled the bodies of saints
Like dung in the streets

The ships of north men came
On that fateful day
Blood of the priests of god
All that they could slay
