

SHIELD WALL

Break through their shield wall
Bring forth the downfall

Ay, Ay, Ay
Make them fall
Ay, Ay, Ay
Tear the wall

I stand my ground
Withstanding the Swine
Come the onslaught
Never break the line

Through storming hail
Clash of Viking spear
Dusk revealing sparks
The end is finally here

Forward the Swine Array
Break through their wall, and pray
We'll die another day
Sound your cries

I stand my ground
Withstanding the Swine
Come the onslaught
Never break the line

Through storming hail
Clash of Viking spear
Dusk revealing sparks
The end is finally here

I will go home
Flying through the sky
I will go home
Greet me as I die

I will go home

Fathers of the old
I will go home
As battle raging on
